

“Join us to implement technologies shaping the automotive future.”

Savari, a venture-funded company focused on 5G and V2X communications for Vehicles is seeking talented and highly motivated Software Engineers. Our employees and associates around the world, are passionate about building software and hardware sensor solutions for automotive OEM car manufacturers, the automotive aftermarket, smart cities, and pedestrians with the vision of making transportation predictive, safer and more efficient. To know more about us, please log onto www.savari.net

Job Title : Test Architect
Experience : 9 to 10 Years
Location : Bangalore, India.

Roles & Responsibilities:

- An individual contributor role with proven ability to design and define the test strategy.
- Ability to create test scenarios based on the requirements, specification and understanding the impact of the multiple features.
- Understanding of the architecture/design, covering various aspects of testing (functional, non-functional, stress, reliability, conformance, robustness).
- Complete ownership of the release with the ability to identify critical customer impacting defects based on requirements.
- Good knowledge of embedded and protocol stack testing, GPS, RF, driver or firmware related testing, writing test scenarios based on requirements and specs, understanding the architecture , covering various aspects of testing (functional, non-functional, stress, reliability, conformance, robustness).
- Enhance & optimize the process of system testing and software testing.

Competencies:

- Requires Bachelor’s degree in Computer Science or Technology.
- Experience in building and maintaining automated tests.
- Knowledge of scripting languages like Python would be a huge plus.
- Good understanding of the test process and ability to do RCA.
- Knowledge of packet capturing tools like Wireshark
- Knowledge in Automotive domain, V2X would be added advantage.
- Knowledge on any of the traffic simulation tools like pre-scan , IPG or related tools would be added advantage.
- Good Communication and Mentoring skills.

What do we offer?

Savari offers the opportunity to join a company that will invest in you for the long-term. we couldn't be where it is today without our incredible team. That's why we share in our success together by rewarding you for your Creative & Hard work. Hiring people who are in it for the long run with Savari is our ultimate goal. We do this by providing a great work environment, challenging career opportunities, professional training, and competitive compensation. Join us and help write our next chapter.

To experience about us, please refer below links

Visit us on : www.savari.net

LinkedIn : <https://www.linkedin.com/company/savari-networks/>

Facebook : <https://www.facebook.com/SavariInc/>

Twitter links : https://twitter.com/savari_v2x

Looking for a challenge where your experience is valued? Come see what you can achieve as a leader with SAVARI!